Grocery Showcase West:

Join us in Vancouver, B.C. March 23 & 24, 2003!

Hosted by the Canadian Federation of Independent Grocers, Grocery Showcase West "focuses its attention on new technologies and competitive pressures driving change in this evolving industry".

The first 10 food processors (who use dairy ingredients in their products) to visit the CDC at booth 527 will get a MILKINGREDIENTS.CA stainless steel mug!

The CDC is proud to be a part of Grocery Showcase West. You'll find Mark Lalonde, Dairy Ingredient Marketing Program Co-ordinator and Shana Bailey, Marketing Officer, at Booth 527 answering questions about the Marketing Program and the Special Milk Class Permit Program as well as promoting the CDC's on-line information centre MILKINGREDIENTS.CA and the Milk Ingredients Education Fund, a funding program designed to support and foster training and education in the science and application of dairy ingredients in further processing.

For more information on Grocery Showcase West, or to register on-line, visit: <http://www.cfig.ca/grocerywest/>

Ingredients Info Library

The Ingredients Info Library is a fantastic tool for everyone! Whether you are a further processor looking for end-use applications for a particular ingredient or a distributor interested in increasing your knowledge about the ingredients you're distributing, this on-line information centre can help. This section of the site allows you to search for the information you need.

In addition, the Manufacturer and Supplier search options in the Ingredients Info Library can help you find contact information and product listings for a particular dairy ingredient manufacturer and/or supplier, or help you find a manufacturer and/or supplier of a particular ingredient.
