MILKINGREDIENTS.CA: Spotlight on...

Ingredient Profiles

The Ingredients Profiles section of the site includes a comprehensive list of over 25 dairy ingredient profiles. Each dairy ingredient profile includes an overview, composition details, characteristics, various end uses and functional properties. Among the list, you'll find profiles on butter, Cheddar cheese, skim milk powder, milk protein concentrate, and a host of others.

Grocery Showcase West:

Join us in Vancouver, B.C. March 23 & 24, 2003!

Hosted by the Canadian Federation of Independent Grocers, Grocery Showcase West "focuses its attention on new technologies and competitive pressures driving change in this evolving industry".

The first 10 food processors (who use dairy ingredients in their products) to visit the CDC at booth 527 will get a MILKINGREDIENTS.CA stainless steel mug!

The CDC is proud to be a part of Grocery Showcase West. You'll find Mark Lalonde, Dairy Ingredient Marketing Program Co-ordinator and Shana Bailey, Marketing Officer, at Booth 527 answering questions about the Marketing Program and the Special Milk Class Permit Program as well as promoting the CDC's on-line information centre MILKINGREDIENTS.CA and the Milk Ingredients Education Fund, a funding program designed to support and foster training and education in the science and application of dairy ingredients in further processing.
