Coming soon to MILKINGREDIENTS.CA

We are pleased to announce that renowned food nutritionist Helen Bishop MacDonald will be contributing a number of insightful articles on issues pertaining to the benefits of dairy products in further processing. Over the next year, Helen will be composing several articles in relation to the following topics:

- Importance of dairy in the beverage sector
- Dairy in the frozen food industry
- Advancements of dairy in the nutraceutical sector
- Advancements of dairy in the pharmaceutical sector

These articles will be featured in a new on-line publication entitled The Experts' Forum. The first article will be on dairy related to health and diet. Check the What's New section on the homepage of the Web site for the first edition, which will be available shortly.
